

History

Head of Humanities - Mr Ebbrell

Head of History - Mr Hastewell

The Course:

History uses a wide range of skills valued by employers such as literacy, analysis, evaluation and research.

Topics of study are:-

- The American West 1845 - 1890
- Crime and Punishment c.50AD - Present
- The Impact of War on Britain 1903 - 1954
- The Vietnam War 1950 - 1975

What could it lead to in Sixth Form?

- A Level History
- A Level Law
- A Level English
- A Level Business
- A Level Psychology

What careers/university courses would this subject help me to enter?

Possible University Courses

History, Business Management, Law, Archaeology, Journalism, Sociology, Politics, American Studies, Criminology and Media

Possible Careers

Law, Civil Service, Journalism, Public Relations, Marketing, Education, Banking, Management, Media and Administration

Geography

Head of Humanities - Mr Ebbrell

The Course:

Geography is a unique subject; it allows you to study peoples' effects on the environment and the environment's effect on people. It is a contemporary subject which changes with the challenges the world faces in the future. GCSE Geography covers a wide choice of exciting, contemporary topics reflecting the world we live in, with greater focus on climate change, sustainability and the geographical skills that employers expect. The subject has various field trip opportunities.

What could it lead to in Sixth Form?

A Level Geography
A Level Business
A Level Economics
BTEC in Business

BTEC Higher Courses – Courses directly related to employment in the Travel and Tourism industry and access to various business courses.

What careers/university courses would this subject help me to enter?

Possible University Courses

Degrees in Geography, Geology, Earth Sciences, Sociology, Business and Economics.

Possible Careers

Business, Administration, Government, Environmental Agencies, Oil Industry, Accountancy and Management.

Geographers are seen as having a wide skills base with very employable attributes.